

Love will find out the Way.
The Second Part, To the same Tune

 may; Yet be you ne'er so har - dy, Love will find out the way.

Love hath power over Princes,
 Or greatest Emperor;
 In any Provinces,
 Such is Love's Power:
 There is no resisting,
 But him to obey;
 In spite of all contesting,
 Love will find out the way.

If that he were hidden,
 And all Men that are;
 Were strictly forbidden,
 That place to declare:
 Winds that have no abiding,
 Pitying their delay;
 Will come and bring him tydings,
 And direct him the way.

If the Earth should part him.
 He would gallop it o're:
 If the Seas should overthwart him,
 He would swim to the Shore:
 Should his Love become a Swallow,
 Thro' the Air to stray;
 Love would lend Wings to follow,
 And would find out the way.

There is no striving,
 To cross his intent:
 There is no contriving,
 His Plots to prevent:
 But if once the Message greet him,
 That his true Love doth stay;
 If Death should come and meet him,
 Love will find out the way.
