

A SONG Sung by Mrs. AYLIFF in the Play call'd Love Triumphant: Or, Nature will Prevail, Sett by Mr. HENRY PURCELL.

How hap - py's the Hus - band, If Chil - dren are bles - sings, how hap - py's the Hus - band, Whose if Chil - dren are bles - sings, his Wife has been try'd, has been try'd, _____ com - fort's the more, is the more, _____

Not damn'd to the Bed, not Whose Spouse has been known, whose damn'd to the Bed of an ig - no - rant Bride; Spouse has been known to be fruit - ful be - fore;

Se - cure of what's And the Boy that she left, se - cure of what's left, he ne'er mis - ses the rest, But where there's e - nough, e - nough, e - brings, And the Boy that she brings re - ady made to his Hand, May stand him in stead, in stead, in nough, but where there's e - nough, sup - po - ses a stead, may stand him in stead, for an Heir to his Feast: So fore - know - wing the Cheat, He es - capes the De - ceit; And in Land: Shou'd his own prove a Sot, When 'tis law - ful - ly got As when spight of the Curse he re - solves, he re - solves to be blest. _____ And in e'er it is so, it is so, if it won't I'll be hang'd. _____ As when spight of the Curse he re - solves, he re - solves to be blest. _____ He re - e'er it is so, it is so, if it won't I'll be hang'd. _____ As when solves to be blest, he re - solves, he re - solves to be blest. _____ e'er it is so, if it won't, if it won't I'll be hang'd. _____