

An Amorous Address to the charming
CORINNA.

The musical score is written for a single voice in treble clef, 3/4 time. It consists of five staves of music with lyrics underneath. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are as follows:

Co - rin - na 'tis you that I Love, And love with a Pas - sion, a In vain I may pray to Love's Powers, To ease me and pi - ty, and Pas - sion so great;— That death a less Tor - ment would prove, Than pi - ty my Pain; Since the Heart that I sue for is yours, Who ei - ther your Frown or your hate: So soft and pre - vail - ing your all o - ther Po - wers dis - dain: Like a God - dess you Ab - so - lute

Charms, In vain I should strive to re - treat; Oh! then let me reign, You a - lone 'tis can save or kill; To whom else then live in your Arms, Or dye in Des - pair at your Feet.

should I com plain, Since my fate must de - pend on your will.