

The LOYAL Subject's WISH. By Mrs.
ANNE MORCOTT.

Let Ma - ry live long, She's Ver - tu - ous and Hea - vens send the King home, With Lau - rels to All glo - rious and gay, Let the King live for

Wit - ty, All char - ming - ly Pret - ty; Let crown him, Each Re - bel to own him; And e - ver: May he lan - guish ne - ver, ne - ver: Like

Ma - ry live long, And Reign ma - ny Years:
may he live long, And Reign ma - ny Years:
Flo - wers in May, His Ac - tions smell sweet:

Wou'd the Cloud was gone o'er, That trou - bles
When the Con - quest is plain, And three - King - doms
When the Wars are all done, And he safe in us sore, When the Sun - shine ap - pears; We shall be re - gain'd; Let his E - ne - mies fall, Then Cæ - sar his Throne; Tro - phies lay at his Feet, With loud Ac - de - li - ver'd, We shall be de - li - ver'd, From fu - ry and fears shall flour - ish, Then Cæ - sar shall flour - ish, In spight of them all.

cla - ma - tions, With loud Ac - cla - ma - tions, His Ma - je - sty greet.
